Mehran Modiri talk about behaviour of Iranians or remembering passed aways !

Since its independence in 1932, Iraq was critical of the Pahlavi monarchy for fashioning Iran as a Persian nation, and had disputed Iran's right to a province so heavily populated by Arabs. Hussein's early successes on the warfront compelled Ayatollah Khomeini, Iran's new leader, to deploy an enormous number of recently, and often poorly, trained soldiers to the front.

Remembering the Iran-Iraq War - Not Even Past

Inscriptions discovered since 1980 and fresh epigraph research have revealed much about the Archaeminid period in the Levant (533-332 BCE). André Lemaire concentrates on three areas where new data has shed light on the societies living in the largest empire that the world had known to that date.
